WHY REED & BARTON?

Sterling is sterling, its contents regulated by law. Yet all sterling is not the same. Design, weight and craftsmanship make the difference, often a big difference. Reed & Barton excels in all three, with authentic patterns that time will never dim. Study the artistic details of each piece, both back and front. Feel the sumptuous weight, the perfect balance. Note the special, rich finish. Reed & Barton craftsmen have been famous for this since 1824. Small wonder then that Reed & Barton is known as the "silver of princes, presidents and potentates."
